

At Pamlico Community College, we take sexual harassment very seriously. It is the responsibility of every member of the college community to take sexual assault and unlawful harassment seriously and take every action necessary to ensure that the applicable policies and procedures of PCC are followed. Any student or employee who believes he or she has been subjected to unlawful harassment or sexual assault on college premises or at a college-related activity has the right to file a complaint and to receive prompt and appropriate handling of the complaint. PCC works with state and local law enforcement and counseling agencies as part of this complaint process. All reasonable efforts shall be made to maintain the confidentiality and protect the privacy of all parties. The names of sexual assault victims will not be disclosed in public records.
