

NCCCS Performance Measures Report 2023-2024

Pamlico Community College Performance Summary

The Performance Measures for Student Success Report is published by the North Carolina Community College System office annually. The annual performance report is based on data compiled during the previous year. Baseline levels are set two standard deviations below the system’s average index score and excellence levels are set one standard deviation above the system’s average index scores. The average band is within 0.5 standard deviations above or below the average index score.

In the 2024 report, Pamlico Community College performed within the average band in three measures, while four measures were below the average band, but still above the baseline level. Two measures were below the system baseline.
